Mrs. Maria Eugènia Gay

President of Barcelona Bar Association

INFO.64-SZ.41.2017

Dear President,

Please accept on behalf of the Polish Bar Council our sincere condolences because of the tragic events which took place on 17 and 18 August this year in Catalonia's capital, Barcelona, and in the city of Cambrils.

The dramatic events, in which innocent people are killed, cause pain and raise strong opposition. They do not weaken however – quite the contrary, they consolidate – our determination to defend the democratic values and human rights. Please be assured that the legal communities, which consider the human rights a fundamental value, will unceasingly support the actions of all governments in their battle to respect such rights.

The Polish Bar community unites with the families of the victims, sharing their pain, deep sorrow and grief.

Yours sincerely,

Jacek Trela, Advocate
President of the Polish Bar Council
